

Native Spirit in collaboration with SOAS Student Union presents...

13 MOONS

Indigenous Films
Screened at SOAS
University
every
FULL MOON

MON 26TH JULY 2010 6.30pm ROOM KLT SOAS University

13 MOONS SCREENINGS is a regular evening of films & talks promoting the cultures & rights of Indigenous people

6.30pm IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF YELLOW WOMAN

24 mins, Diné People, 2009, USA, Dir. Camille Manybeads Tso

A thirteen years old Diné (Navajo) girl learns about her ancestry through interviews with her grandmother.

BUNDLE IN GOOD STANDING

14 mins, DELAWARE, Dir. Gabriel Whiteturkey

This short film poetically details the journey of Gabriel's great, great, grandmother, MAH'WAH'TIS', through an unknown land during her tribe's forced exodus from villages in Ohio and Kansas. Mah'Wah'Tis' was a mythic figure among her Delaware Indian people. She was keeper of her tribe's sacred ceremonial dolls.

Entry £6, Students £3

SOAS -

School of Oriental & African Studies

Thornhaugh Street, Russell Sq

London WC1H

tel: +44 (0)20 7898 4995

7.30 pm THE MYSTERY OF CHACO CANYON

56 mins, Dir. Anna Sofaer

Unveiling the ancient astronomy of southwestern Pueblo Indians, THE MYSTERY OF CHACO CANYON examines the deep enigmas presented by the massive prehistoric remains found in Chaco Canyon in northwestern New Mexico. It is the summation of 20 years of research. The film reveals that between 850 and 1150 AD, the Chacoan people designed and constructed massive ceremonial buildings in a complex celestial pattern throughout a vast desert region.

UPCOMING

13 MOONS SCREENINGS:

August 24th - 6.30PM

September 23rd - 6.30PM

Native Spirit Foundation is a non-profit organisation, which promotes the knowledge and preservation of Indigenous Cultures and funds educational resources for young indigenous people. It is independent, self-funded and run entirely by volunteers.

This October the 4th Native Spirit Festival 2010 will bring talks, performances, workshops and films to schools, universities, and cinemas in London and across Europe.

www.nativespiritfestival.com